Paranormal Investigators To Host Lectures Series At Ocean County Library Branches

OCEAN COUNTY – For those intrigued with paranormal activity, members of South Jersey Ghost Research (SJGR) will host a series of lectures at three Ocean County Library branches this month.

The lectures will consist of videos, photo displays, equipment demonstrations and audio samples of spirit voices. The program will also include a question and answer period.

The programs will be held:

- Tuesday, October 10, 2017, 7 – 8pm Pt. Pleasant Beach Branch, 710 McLean Ave. 732-892-4575
- Monday, October 23, 2017, 7 – 8pm Plumsted Branch, 119 Evergreen Rd. 609-758-7888
- Tuesday, October 24, 2017, 7 – 8pm Barnegat Branch, 112 Burr St. 609-698-3331

SJGR can trace its roots back to 1955. Many of their members claim to have lived in haunted houses which has given them a perspective to understanding what others may be going through.

The aim of the non-profit is to assist anyone in NJ, Eastern Pa, De, and NYC who are troubled by paranormal activity. Most members have years of personal experience dealing with ghosts and hauntings.

These programs are free but registration is required. To register call the branch or visit theoceancountylibrary.org
