Holocaust Survivor to Speak at Ocean County Library

TOMS RIVER – In observance of Holocaust Remembrance Day, the Toms River Branch of the Ocean County Library will host writer, producer, and Holocaust survivor, Otto Salamon, at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, April 12.

Salamon will share his experiences as a young boy whose family was deeply impacted by the Holocaust. He is the author of “Dodging Death: a Family on the Run” which will be available for purchase at the event.

This free program is sponsored by the Friends of the Ocean County Library – Toms River. It will be held in the Bishop Building next to the library on 101 Washington St.

Registration is required. To register, call 732-349-6200 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org.

Free parking is available daily after 5 pm, in the top and middle levels of the Toms River parking garage located behind the library or anytime in the Ocean County parking garage on Hooper Avenue
