LGBTQ Documentary Screening: “Our Lips Are Sealed”

JACKSON – The Ocean County Library will host a screening of the documentary “Our Lips Are Sealed” at 2 p.m. Tuesday, June 5 at the Jackson Branch, 2 Jackson Drive.

“Our Lips Are Sealed” is a documentary about the longest continuous kiss that broke the Guinness World Record in 2010. The kiss was hailed as “the kiss heard around the world” and was the inspiration for the novel “Two Boys Kissing” by bestselling author David Levithan.

The screening will be followed by a Q&A with record breaker and LGBTQ advocate Matty Daley.

This program is sponsored by the OCL Cultural Awareness Team.

Registration is required for this free event. To register, call 732-928-4400 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
