Library Knitters Seeking Yarn to Make Holiday Gifts for Children

MANCHESTER – In time for the holidays, the Manchester Branch of the Ocean County Library's knitting and crocheting group will be making hats and scarves for children of Ocean County who are in need.

Every holiday season, the Ocean County Health Department collects donations of gloves, mittens, hats, and scarves which they gift to children from their clinics.

The Manchester Branch's creations will be added to this cause. The knitters need new skeins of yarn to accomplish their mission.

Donors should bring their yarn to the Manchester Branch of the Ocean County Library, located at 21 Colonial Drive. For more information, call the branch at 732-657-7600 and ask for Mary Bridges.
