Autism Support Group Meeting in September

JACKSON – The Ocean County Library will host “All About Autism” at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, September 26 at the Jackson Branch, 2 Jackson Drive.

“All About Autism” is a discussion and support group for caregivers of those affected by autism. Attendees will explore ways in which autism has affected their lives.

Teen volunteers will run supervised activities for children 12 or under.

Registration is required for this free event. Please notify the branch when registering if you plan to bring children. To register or for more information, visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events or call the branch at 732-928-4400.
