Story of New Jersey Immigration to Be Told at Jackson Library

JACKSON – The Ocean County Library will host “Immigrant State: Jersey’s Influential Gate” at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 23 at the Jackson Branch.

This event will tell New Jersey’s big story of immigration, packed into a little state.

Immigration in New Jersey has been and still is distinct by region. Considering and learning more about what this means can lead to more informed communities.

Film clips, texts, and media coverage will guide participants in a candid discussion about local and national immigration issues.

This program is sponsored by NJ Council for the Humanities and OCL Cultural Awareness Team.

The branch is located at 2 Jackson Drive.

Registration is required for this free event. To register, call the branch at 732-928-4400 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
