Career Services for Persons with Disabilities

JACKSON – The Ocean County Library will host “Career Services for Person with Disabilities” 2 p.m. Friday, October 26 at the Jackson Branch, 2 Jackson Drive.

The Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services (DVRS) helps people with all types of disabilities to find and maintain employment. This includes career exploration/counseling, vocational training, college sponsorship, trial work experiences, and job coaching.

Attendees may speak with DVRS counselors at the event to find out more.

This event is funded by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development Career Connections grant.

Registration is required for this free program. To register, call the branch at 732-928-4400 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
