Adult Craft and Maker Activities at Manchester Library

MANCHESTER – The Manchester Branch of the Ocean County Library will host two maker programs for adults in March.

“Turn Ordinary Paper into Beautiful Stones!” 2 p.m. Wednesdays, Mar. 6 and 13. In the first session, the group will match paper sizes, shapes, and colors, then align edges and glue layers of paper together. In the second session, the group will finish the projects by sanding them into their final shapes and varnishing them to glossy finishes.

“Home Décor Upcycled from Old Books” 10 a.m. Friday, Mar. 22. Create two types of ornaments from the pages of old books in honor of NJ Maker Day.

All materials will be supplied by the library free of charge.

The branch is located at 21 Colonial Drive in Manchester Township.

Registration is required for these free programs. To register, call the branch at 732-657-7600 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
