Manchester Library Offers Offsite Programs for Adults

MANCHESTER – The Manchester Branch of the Ocean County Library offers a variety of programs and presentations, available for free to organizations and communities in Manchester, Whiting, and Lakehurst. A librarian will come to your location to present on one of the following topics of your choice.

Dance and music programs:

- “An Unlikely Two: Misty Copeland and Robert Battle”
- Bob Fosse: Dance Like Nobody’s Watching” (only available October through December 2019)
- “Sing Along with Sandra”

Online resource programs:

- “23 Websites You Should Know About” (two-part program)
- “Introduction to Pinterest”
- “Uber and Lyft Transportation Services”
- Instruction programs are offered for several subscription databases available through the Ocean County Library, including EBSCOHOST, language databases, movie streaming databases, Universal classes, and the ValueLine and Morningstar investment resources.

Craft programs:

- “Create a Wire Birds’ Nest and Egg Pendant” (limit 20 people)
- “Make Flowers from Old Book Pages” (limit 30 people)

History programs:

- “The History of Manchester Township from the 19th Century to the Present”

Literature discussion programs:

- “Book Café”

Other programs:

- “Have Your Picture Taken Anywhere On (or Off) the Planet without Leaving the Building” (limit 30 people)

Presentations are 45 to 60 minutes and may include time for a Q&A.

Several presentations require a projector and screen.

For more information about these programs or to reserve a date, call the branch at 732-657-7600 or email mmahoney@theoceancountylibrary.org.
