Learn How to Do a House History at Toms River Library

TOMS RIVER – The Toms River Branch of the Ocean County Library will host “How to Do a House History” at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 5.

Have you ever wondered about the history of your or an ancestor’s home? Lorraine Arnold will give a starting point for your own research.

Lorraine Arnold is a historical researcher of people, places, and things to solve mysteries, tell histories, and build lives. She has worked as a paralegal and studies architecture, preservation, and historic properties at Drew University.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Ocean County Library – Toms River.

The branch is located at 101 Washington Street.

Registration is required for this free program. To register, call the branch at 732-349-6200 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
