Veterans' Healthcare Info and Claims Clinic at Berkeley Library

BERKELEY TOWNSHIP – The Berkeley Branch of the Ocean County Library will host an informational session about health benefits and services for US military veterans, at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, January 15.

Representatives of the Veterans Administration will answer questions and provide guidance. The program is intended to help veterans learn the full range of benefits and services available to them.

The branch is located at 30 Station Road, Bayville.

Registration is recommended for this free program. To register, call the branch at 732-269-2144, or register at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
