February Photo Art Exhibit by Anthony Cuttitta at Toms River Library

TOMS RIVER – The Toms River Branch of the Ocean County Library will host “Faces,” a collection of street photography by Anthony Cuttitta, in the 2nd Floor Gallery throughout the month of February.

A native of Lodi, New Jersey, Anthony recently relocated to Toms River after living 30 years in the Pocono Mountains. His work has been shown in the Soho in the Burg Gallery, Sweet Cream’s Café, and Monroe Street Gallery in Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania.

He also holds a Master’s degree in social work, and has practiced psychotherapy for the past 35 years.

Anthony says, “I’ve always had a strong curiosity about people and their behavior in social environments. The photographs in this show represent a visual expression of my desire and attempt to explore people in their environment.”

The branch is located at 101 Washington Street.

Registration is not required for this free exhibit. An artist’s reception will take place Saturday, Feb. 8, at 1 p.m.

For more information, contact the branch, 732-349-6200, ext. 5100, or visit www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events.
