Ocean County Library Offers Free Virtual Program About Human Trafficking

TOMS RIVER – The Ocean County Library will offer a free virtual program, “Human Trafficking,” 6:30 PM Thursday, October 22.

It will be presented by Jaimee Johnson, founder and Chief Executive Officer of the advocacy group Sisters of the Streets.

Mrs. Johnson holds multiple awards and recognitions for her support and mentorship efforts. She encourages communities to identify and eliminate conditions that contribute to exploitation.

The free program is sponsored by Ocean County Human Services. It is open to teens, adults and educators. Registration is required.

To register, visit www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events, or call 732-349-6200, ext. 5203.
