Ocean County Library Long Beach Island Branch To Host American Red Cross Blood Drive

SURF CITY – Start 2024 with a lifesaving act. The Ocean County Library Long Beach Island Branch invites you to make a difference during the American Red Cross blood donation drive in its meeting room, 1 PM until 6 PM Tuesday, January 30.

If you're at least 17 years of age, weigh 110 pounds or more, and in good health, you are eligible to donate a pint of blood. In New Jersey, 16-year-olds with parental permission are eligible to donate. Potential donors younger than age 18 are subject to height and weight requirements.

Appointments are recommended, but walk-ins are welcome. Remember to bring photo identification. Set a donation appointment online at www.redcrossblood.org, or by phone at 1-800-RED-CROSS (1-800-733-2767).
