TOMS RIVER – The Ocean County Library’s Autism Resources Fair 2021 offers a free, family-friendly concert with Mr. Bobby, Music Therapist, at 10 AM Saturday, April 10.

Bobby Davis is a board-certified music therapist working in the South Jersey area, as well as virtually. He offers individual and group music therapy that provides a fun and interactive musical experience.

The multi-instrumentalist earned a degree in music therapy at Temple University, and began his therapy practice in 2019 in schools, hospitals, nursing facilities, and homes.

Over the past year, he has developed many strategies and activities to engage with clients online that he looks forward to sharing with you.
