Ocean County Library Lacey Branch to Offer LGBTQA+ Health Services Virtual Program

LACEY TOWNSHIP – During Pride Month, discover medical services and support groups that serve you or your loved ones in New Jersey’s LGBTQA+ community. The Ocean County Library Lacey Branch will offer a virtual program, “Be Proud,” 6 PM Monday, June 27.

Daniel A. Fernandez, LGBT Health Navigator for the RWJ Barnabas Health PROUD Gender Center of New Jersey, will lead the discussion.

Fernandez specializes in supporting transgender individuals, LGBTQA+ communities of color, and people with disabilities. He trained educational, medical, nonprofit and social service workers in the Transgender Training Institute, Philadelphia.

Registration at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events is required to attend this free program. Registrants will receive Zoom links by email.

Keep up with Library programs and events at www.theoceancountylibrary.org, and on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube, Spotify, and Pinterest.
