Enjoy Crocheting Outdoors at Ocean County Library Jackson Branch

JACKSON – Meet new friends, share some laughs and turn yarn into useful, decorative items in the great outdoors during the Ocean County Library Jackson Branch’s “Crochet Meet in Nature,” 10 AM Tuesday, July 13.

Knitters and crochet enthusiasts will pass the time in the branch gazebo, weather permitting. In case of rain, the session will move to the branch’s meeting room.

Everyone is welcome, regardless of skill level. Newcomers can expect to be given plenty of help in learning the skill. Bring along your UFOs (UnFinished Objects), a chair, and a crochet project or hook, needles and yarn.
