Create Unique Natural Fragrances at the Ocean County Library

TOMS RIVER – Here is an opportunity to create an aroma as individual as you are. Perfume enthusiast Megan Ruisch will lead “The Art of Natural Fragrance” at several Library system branches

- Manchester Branch – 6 PM Monday, October 17, 21 Colonial Drive, (732) 657-7600
- Stafford Branch – 1 PM Saturday, November 5, 129 North Main Street, Manahawkin, (609) 597-3381
- Lacey Branch – 1 PM Saturday, December 10, 10 East Lacey Road, Forked River, (609) 693-8566

Participants in this engaging, do-it-yourself program series will learn how to blend natural ingredients to create their own scented balms.

Registration at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events is required for the free programs at all three branches. Registrants should be age 18 or older.

“The Art of Natural Fragrance” is not recommended for those with asthma, allergies, or skin sensitivity.
