Monday Movies and Mah Jongg Return to OCL Berkeley Branch

BERKELEY TOWNSHIP – As the autumn chills set in, the Ocean County Library Berkeley Branch heats up indoors for gamers and film watchers in November.

Monday Movies Are Back

Starting at 1 PM Monday, November 8, the Berkeley Branch will present recently-released movies for adults each week.

On Monday, November 29, no film will be scheduled, but patrons and visitors are invited to take part in a blood drive that the Branch will host for the American Red Cross.

Please contact the Berkeley Branch for more details at 732-269-2144, or see the schedule at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events.

Calling Mah Jongg Mavens

Are you a master of the pastime that teases the brain and sparks fun chatter? Starting November 11, Mah Jongg players meet at 1 PM each Thursday in the Berkeley Branch.

Experienced players are especially encouraged to join the weekly sessions. Players should bring their own sets and their current cards.

A one-time registration www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events entitles players to attend all sessions.
