Ocean County Library to Present Elvistory: Christmas with "The King"

TOMS RIVER – The Ocean County Library will present Elvistory: Christmas with "The King," Thursday, December 2 at the Jackson Branch and Monday, December 6th at the Toms River Branch. Both presentations will begin at 7 PM.

Award-winning Elvis Tribute Artist and "Elvis-torian" Ruben Castillo will step into character for the live, musical Yuletide journey. The audience will learn about Elvis's love of the holidays and traditions and toys during his career, and will be invited to join in holiday songs recorded by The King.

Castillo has more than 30 years of experience as a musical theater actor in community and regional productions. His voice-over talents include video game characters, celebrity impersonations, and children's interactive storybooks.

Additionally, he emcees and produces many Elvis contests and productions. Since June 2018, fans of Boogie Nights in Atlantic City's Tropicana Hotel know him as emcee "Elvis Estrada."

Registration is required for these free programs. Sign up and see more details at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events or call 732-349-6200.
