Little Egg Harbor Branch of Ocean County Library Experiences Damage from Car Accident

LITTLE EGG HARBOR – In the evening on Wednesday, December 21st, a car struck the side of Ocean County Library’s Little Egg Harbor branch building, causing an early closure. There were no injuries from the incident, all staff and patrons are safe. The Library would like to thank the Little Egg Harbor Police, Fire and EMTs who arrived promptly at the branch to handle the accident.

The branch will be closed through at least Tuesday, December 27th for building inspection. All holds will be extended, and library patrons are welcome to visit any of Ocean County Library’s other locations.
