Ocean County Library Jackson Branch to Present Valentine Concert with Rhythm N' Sound

JACKSON – The spirit of love will fill the air during the Valentine’s Day concert featuring Rhythm N’ Sound at the Ocean County Library Jackson Branch, 7 PM Wednesday, February 15.

The popular Jersey Shore group will present a rich menu of romantic classics from its vast repertoire of rock ‘n roll, pop standards, classic rock, doo-wop, disco and Motown favorites from the ‘50s through the ‘80s.

Singer Frank Resola and guitarist Joe Moscato, former Howell Township teachers, have polished their pop music craft since their teens, playing live dates and recording sessions throughout New Jersey and the New York metropolitan area.

The nucleus of Rhythm N’ Sound formed when Resola asked Moscato to sit in with the popular New Jersey band he fronted, Sidewalk Serenade. They have worked together ever since. The band keeps a selection of audio and video clips on its website.
