Hear ‘DAR: Women of the American Revolution’ at Ocean County Library Long Beach Island Branch

SURF CITY – The history of the Revolutionary War is incomplete without acknowledging the contributions of women. Sam Davis, as young General George Washington, will discuss “DAR: The Women of the American Revolution” at the Ocean County Library Long Beach Island Branch, 1 PM Saturday, February 18.

Davis’s extensive research of George Washington and the Revolutionary War brings authenticity and passion to his interpretive presentations in schools, civic organizations, corporate gatherings, and historic sites throughout New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The longtime teacher and motivational speaker, based in the Philadelphia metropolitan area, is also a Freemason and a member of the Sons of the American Revolution. He maintains an active following through his website.

Please register at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events to attend this free program, sponsored by Daughters of the American Revolution. For more information, visit the LBI Branch, 217 South Central Avenue, Surf City, or call (609) 494-2480.

Keep up with Library programs and events at www.theoceancountylibrary.org, and on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube, Spotify, and Pinterest.
