Young Adults Can Master Flower Arranging at Ocean County Library Toms River Branch

TOMS RIVER – Flower arranging is not only a simple way to brighten a home, but it can also be a fun pastime, and even a fascinating career. Young adults age 12 to 18 can become adept in the art during “Flower Arranging 101” at the Ocean County Library Toms River Branch, 4 PM Tuesday, March 21.

Join Danielle Hovance of Village Florist and Trading Company, Toms River, as she demonstrates flower-arranging basics. All supplies will be provided by the Branch.

"Often, as I am arranging flowers, I catch myself smiling from ear to ear," Danielle said. "I usually chuckle because I must look pretty funny if someone ever looked in the window and saw me smiling away all by myself...well, just me and my flowers. I am excited to share the experience and joy of arranging flowers and creating something beautiful with teens for this event."

Please register at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events to attend this free program, sponsored by the Friends of the Ocean County Library – Toms River. For more information, visit the Branch, 101 Washington Street, or call (732) 349-6200.
