Trace the Legacy of Leis and Create One at Ocean County Library Jackson Branch

JACKSON TOWNSHIP – The floral garlands known as leis have a rich history in lands such as Hawaii, Polynesia, and the Philippines. Learn about their significance while you create your own lei with fresh carnations at the Ocean County Library Jackson Branch, 2 PM Monday, May 22.

The crafting and culture program, in honor of Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, will be led by Tracy Vincent of Whiting Flower Shoppe.

Worn about the shoulders, leis are commonly considered gestures of affection and welcome. In various cultures, they also symbolized royalty, rank, and honor.

All crafting materials will be provided, while supplies last. Seating is limited. Please register at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events to attend this free program.

For more information, stop by the OCL Jackson Branch, 2 Jackson Drive, or call (732) 928-4400.
