Charitable Knitters Seek Yarn Donations at Ocean County Library Jackson Branch

JACKSON TOWNSHIP – Your unused yarn can be transformed into something special for someone in need. The Knit-Chat-Chain volunteers of the Ocean County Library Jackson Branch seek donations of yarn, from the beginning of June to the end of August.

Knit-Chat-Chain volunteers use the yarn to make items which are donated for distribution to disadvantaged people in Ocean County and neighboring communities. New members are welcome. Meetings alternate on Mondays at 10am or 6:30pm.

Donations of new four-ply worsted yarn in all colors can be brought to the Branch throughout summer. To find out more, visit the Branch, 2 Jackson Drive, or call (732) 928-4400.
