Teens, Master Ceramic Art at Ocean County Library Toms River Branch

TOMS RIVER – Ceramic items add beauty to any living space, and they're great gifts as well. Teens can create ceramic replicas of sea life in the Makerspace of the Ocean County Library Toms River Branch, 3 PM Tuesday, June 20.

All materials will be provided for this unique one-hour program for young adults aged 13 to 18. Create and decorate a colorful ceramic fish, and take your masterpiece home after it's been fired in the kiln.

The session will be led by Lorraine Kofman, founder and owner of the Just Kil'n Time Ceramic Studio in Waretown. Now in its sixth year, the studio offers classes and crafting parties for all ages.

"To say that Just Kil'n Time Ceramics Studio is a dream come true is an absolute understatement," Lorraine said. Every day I am given the chance to bring a smile to the face of everyone who walks through my door, simply by helping them discover their hidden talents."

Please register at www.theoceancountylibrary.org/events for this free program, sponsored by Friends of the Ocean County Library – Toms River. For more information, visit the Toms River Branch, 101 Washington Street, or call (732) 349-6200.
