Experience the Strength of Indigenous Song and Dance at the Ocean County Library Lacey Branch

FORKED RIVER – In honor of Native American Heritage Month, the Lacey Branch of the Ocean County Library will host “The Strength of Song and Dance” at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, November 13.

The Lenapehoking Reestablishment Project as well as the Ellis-Gould family of the Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape tribe will perform music and dances traditional to the Lenape and Nanticoke tribes, and modern to all indigenous people. They will also educate attendees of a variety of art forms.

The Lenapehoking Reestablishment Project is geared towards the promoting of Lenape awareness, supporting of tribal youth, and public relations.

Registration is required for this free program. To register, visit tinyurl.com/NativeSongAndDance, call 609-693-8566, or visit the branch at 10 East Lacey Road, Forked River.

OCL turned 100 this year and you're why we're celebrating! See details on Facebook, Instagram, X, YouTube, Spotify, Pinterest and theoceancountylibrary.org.
